

NEW COLLEGE FRANKLIN
SELF-EVALUATION FORM

Franklin, Tennessee
www.newcollegefranklin.org

The purpose of self-evaluation is to reflect and learn from what you did well as well as those areas in which you could improve. Please answer honestly, both in the positives and negatives, recognizing that everyone has areas of strength, and everyone has areas of improvement. This evaluation considers the entire year of teaching, so please answer accordingly.

Instructor:

Academic Year:

Courses

Date:

In what areas do you believe you did well this year?

In what areas do you believe you need to improve?

Do you have any updates to your professional plan?

(Recent or upcoming publications, formal education plans (degree), informal personal education goals (non-degree); teaching goals/plans, ministry involvement, future ministry goals)

Signature:

Date: